2. The area within a radius of 25-50 miles of the reported location of Qoshlash Langar was covered by good quality photography from [redacted]

25X1D

A search of this photography revealed no indications of any type of significant installation. The only evident activity in this barren desert area is an occasional trail. There is no evidence of any major roads or any significant activity in the triangular area formed by Hotien, Keriya, and Qoshlash, Langar.
